

The Tiddly

Lower Freystrop, Haverfordwest, SA62 4LD

Guide Price: £220,000 | Freehold

Offered to the market is a unique opportunity to acquire a former public house with strong residential development potential, set within the sought-after rural village of Freystrop. The property was previously granted conditional planning consent (Application No. 19/0672/PA) for conversion to a substantial four-bedroom detached dwelling. While that permission has since lapsed (23rd January 2025), the approved architectural plans remain available and outline an impressive contemporary home with generous internal living space, private parking, and landscaped gardens with a defined patio area.

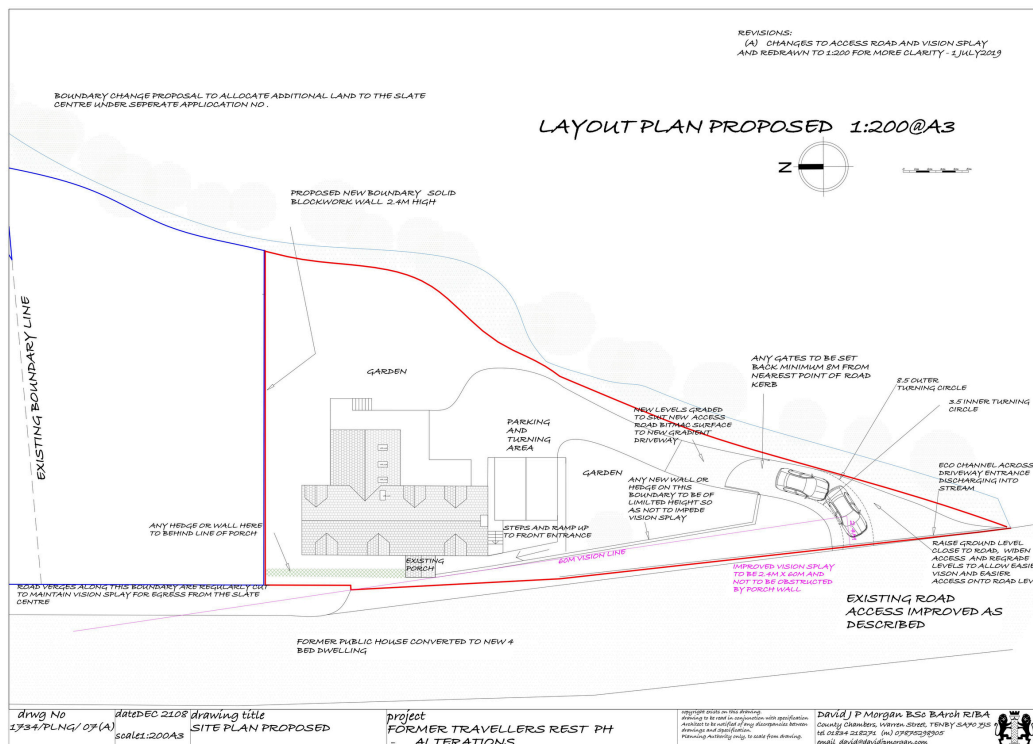

Set within the heart of Pembrokeshire's unspoilt countryside, Freystrop enjoys close proximity to the scenic Cleddau River and easy access to the nearby towns of Haverfordwest, Milford Haven, and Pembroke. Just a mile away, the neighbouring village of Hook offers a strong community atmosphere, a well-regarded primary school, and a variety of local activities, all nestled within the Western Cleddau—a landscape of national park designation and ecological importance. The area benefits from excellent transport links, with convenient road and rail connections to Carmarthen, Swansea, Cardiff, Fishguard, and Cardigan.

Additional Information:

We are advised that mains services are currently connected to the property. Prospective purchasers are encouraged to review the original planning documentation and consult with the local authority regarding any future application.
